ALMA MATER

Hail, Alma Mater, we sing to thy praise,
Great our affection through all our school days.
Resting so peaceful and calm 'neath the sky,
Fondly we love thee, our dear Hamburg High.

Hail, Alma Mater, we sing to thy praise,
Loud in thy honor, our voices we raise.
Full in thy fortune, our banners will fly,
Life and prosperity, dear Hamburg High.

Hail, Alma Mater, thy praises we sing,
Far down the centuries still may they ring.
Long through the ages never to die,
Pride of our school days, our dear Hamburg High.

The 1974-1975 yearbook is dedicated to Coach Charles Coleman.

Coach Coleman first came to Hamburg as an assistant under Don Crews for several years, before leaving Hamburg for Smackover. Later, he came back to Hamburg as junior high coach.

Now, as head senior coach, his leading records can partly be attributed to his winning attitude and interest in his work. In 1972, he was named "Coach of the Year." Since then, he has continued to turn out 8-AA championship teams. Some of his winning records are 5-3-1, 8-3, 8-2, and 7-1-3.

Winning the 8-AA title has always been a dream in Hamburg, and he, along with some fine players made it come true.

Darrel Atkins, Alice Hill, and Marva Tucker smile, despite the cold weather. Katherine Kellum worked hard backing the Lions. Freshman Faye Boyd is caught by the camera's eye. Karen Noble grins at the "cheerleaders": Lawrence Grubb, Troy Paskel, and Reid Harrod.

TO THOSE I LOVE

If I should ever leave you whom I love
to go along the silent way, grieve not,
Nor speak of me with tears, but laugh and talk
Of me as if I were beside you, for
Who knows, but I shall be often times?
I'd come, I'd come could I but find a way!
But would not tears and grief be barriers?
And when you hear a song I used to sing,
Or see a bird I loved — let not the thought
Of me be sad, for I am loving you
Just as I always have . . . you were so good to,
to me . . .
So many things I wanted still to do . . .
So many, many things to say to you . . .
Remember that I did not fear . . . It was Just leaving you I could not bear to face . . .
We cannot see Beyond . . . But this I know,
I loved you so — 'twas Heaven here with you!

ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS
Mr. B. W. Allbritton, Jr.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Staff Members:

You are to be commended for another fine yearbook. The Lion of '75 reflects many memories which we will treasure for years to come. The spirit of togetherness which you exemplified in completing this publication inspires me to place more confidence in you to leave this world a better place than you found it.

We are saddened for the second year in a row by the loss of another one of our fine students. He will be remembered for what he added to our spirit of togetherness as well as for his other personal achievements.

I will always cherish my past and future associations with you and other members of the student body. Your lives are near and dear to me and have added much purpose to my life.

Sincerely,
B. W. Allbritton, Jr.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

In our times just an education is not enough. There is much more to a successful life than getting an education and making money. On your journey toward maturity you must learn self-reliance and respect for yourself and others. You must learn what it means to "Pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America." You must learn to rely on a divine being when human resources are no longer sufficient. You must learn the supremacy of right over wrong and how to apply this in your relations with your fellow being.

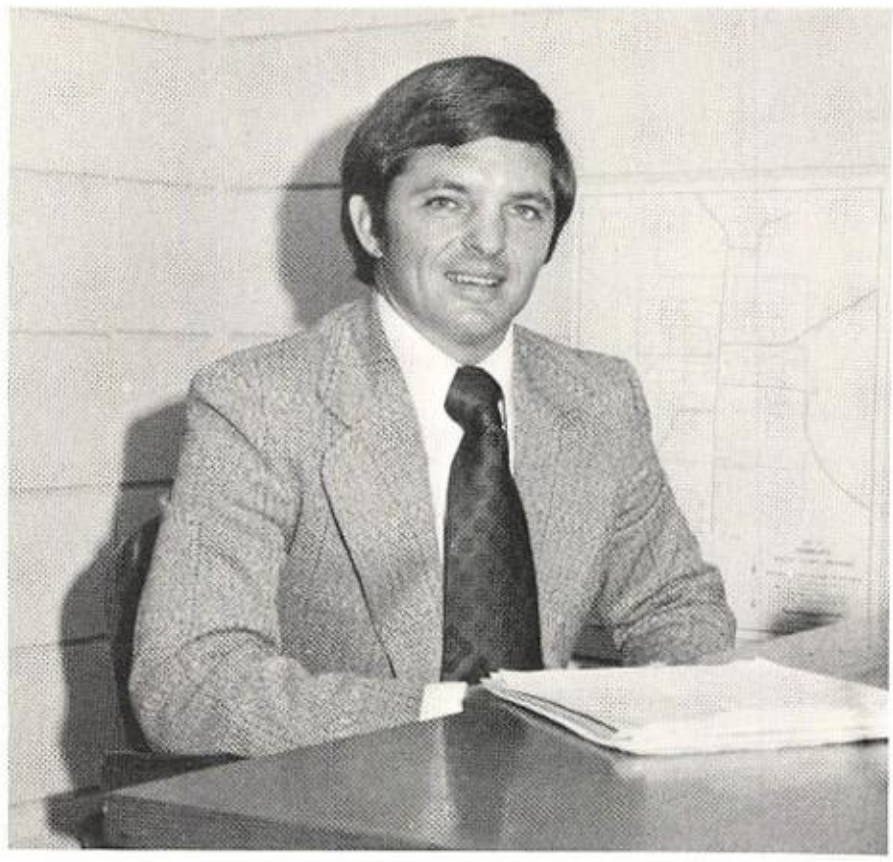
All these things and others are the reason we exist here at Hamburg High School.

J. W. Hall

HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL
Mr. J. W. Hall

MIDDLE SCHOOL PRINCIPAL
Mr. Shelby Harrod

Mr. Shelby Harrod came to Hamburg in 1955 as the senior high basketball coach and junior high football coach. Before coming to Hamburg he had served as basketball coach at Hermitage and Tillar. In 1970, he became principal of the newly organized Hamburg Middle School. In addition to Mr. Harrod's duties as principal, he continues to serve as the head basketball coach for the senior high boys.



ELEMENTARY SCHOOL PRINCIPAL
Mr. Bobby Harper

Mr. Bobby Harper came to Hamburg in 1973 from Crossett, where he was the senior high boys' basketball coach. His qualifications include a B.S.E. from the University of Arkansas at Monticello and a M.S.E. from Arkansas State University. Although Mr. Harper is involved in many activities, he finds time to work as a youth leader. This year he served as sponsor of the Hamburg Chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

In 1974, the Hamburg Board of Education faced many problems. But by working closely with the faculty and students, they were able to resolve these problems and continue their responsibilities.

The school board has many duties in several different areas. Personnel, financial, and student-teacher relationships are just a few.

The members of this board work very hard to keep the Hamburg School System running smoothly.

SENIOR HIGH

SENIORS

The Seniors of 1975 anxiously awaited their last year and were filled with relief and sadness to finally make it. But this didn't last long when they found it would be busier than ever.

With the spirit-drive, pictures to be taken, a play to be performed, invitations to be selected, and tests and banquets . . . they soon found the year to be filled with activities.

The Seniors this year have accomplished a lot as a class as well as individually. The year they had all awaited anxiously for was now over before they knew it. They walked down the aisle on May 19, 1975 with diplomas in hand and a starry look to the future.

The Junior class of 1975 had lots of spirit to back their school. They proved this with a first place float at Homecoming and they were chosen the class with the most enthusiasm during spirit week.

They held the traditional class play and magazine subscription drive in order to raise money to honor the seniors at the Junior-Senior Banquet.

PERSONALITY

LION QUEEN FINALISTS

Peggy Harris

The Sr. class selected four girls which they felt would best represent H.H.S. as Lion Queen. Unfortunately only one girl could win but she is truly a beauty Lion Queen Tammy Burt.

Queen Tammy likes to sing at her church in trios or quartets. She is a member of FBLA and is on the Hamburger Staff.

Candidate Peggy Harris is a member of the band and is a majorette. She is Vice President of FBLA and serves on the Lion and Hamburger Staffs.

Candidate Kay Smith is on the Hamburger Staff and is Historian of FBLA. She is a member of the band and is captain of the majorettes.

Candidate Sue Sink is a member of the Lionettes and is a cheerleader. She serves on the Lion Staff and is editor of the Hamburger.

"A Walk Down Broadway" was the Junior Homecoming theme this year and Queen Carla Crews walked down Broadway with Mark Gabbie and Stephen Murphy. Tina Higginbotham served as M.C.

The royal court sat in front of their make believe star dressing rooms while the Cubettes sang a song. That was followed by the majorettes and a cheerleader dance.

Queen Carla was crowned in the pregame ceremony by Stephen Murphy. The game score was Monticello 35 and Hamburg 0.

QUEEN SUE SINK

Queen Sue Sink reigned over the "74" Homecoming festivities. "Seasons in the Sun" was the theme. Mr. Steve Sessions introduced the court as they walked into autumn leaves. An old oak tree majestically reigned over the court decorated with fall hues.

The entertainment began with Tina Higginbotham singing the theme song. The majorettes twirled and the cheerleaders sang a tune to honor Queen Sue. Susan Spivey did a ballet to further enhance the onlookers.

The annual parade made up of class and club floats, the band, and the Lionettes was held at 2 p.m.

Queen Sue was crowned by Carl Jeffers in the pre-game ceremony. Bobby Gwin and Carl Jeffers were the Lion Captains. Everyone boosted the Lions to a tie with Dumas. The score was 7 to 7.

Byron Bordeaux, is vice president of the Student Council and a starter on the basketball team. Susan Spivey is captain of the senior cheerleaders and co-editor of the LION '75. Charre Degges was awarded a partial grant for her original reading in the district Junior Miss Pageant. She is secretary of the Student Council. Ashton McCombs, co-editor of the annual, is captain of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Sue Sink was a delegate to Girls State and is editor of the school newspaper. Susie Riley is secretary of the National Honor Society and was selected for outstanding work in the 4-H Club. She attended the Citizenship Short Course in Washington, D.C. Earnie Hennington is president of the Future Farmers of America and was chosen as senior class favorite. Anita Leigh is a member of the National Honor Society and captain of the Lionettes. Shane Daniel was elected to Who's Who Among American Athletes, All District, and All Southeast Arkansas for outstanding performance in football. It can easily be seen that these students were active, and yet they still managed to maintain a 3.5 grade-point average after seven semesters.

Calvin Booker and Willie Ashford teamed up on a 45-yard touchdown pass for the first score of the season. Troy Paskel then scored the first of his two touchdowns, capping a 50-yard drive. Chuck Nutter picked up a fumble and ran it across making the PAT good. Paskel added his second touchdown on a two yard plunge before the half. Anthony Fulgham converted for two points. Fulgham sprinted 18 yards for a touchdown early in the third quarter. Hamburg's final score came as Booker connected with Ashford again on a nine-yard pass. Burt's extra point was good.

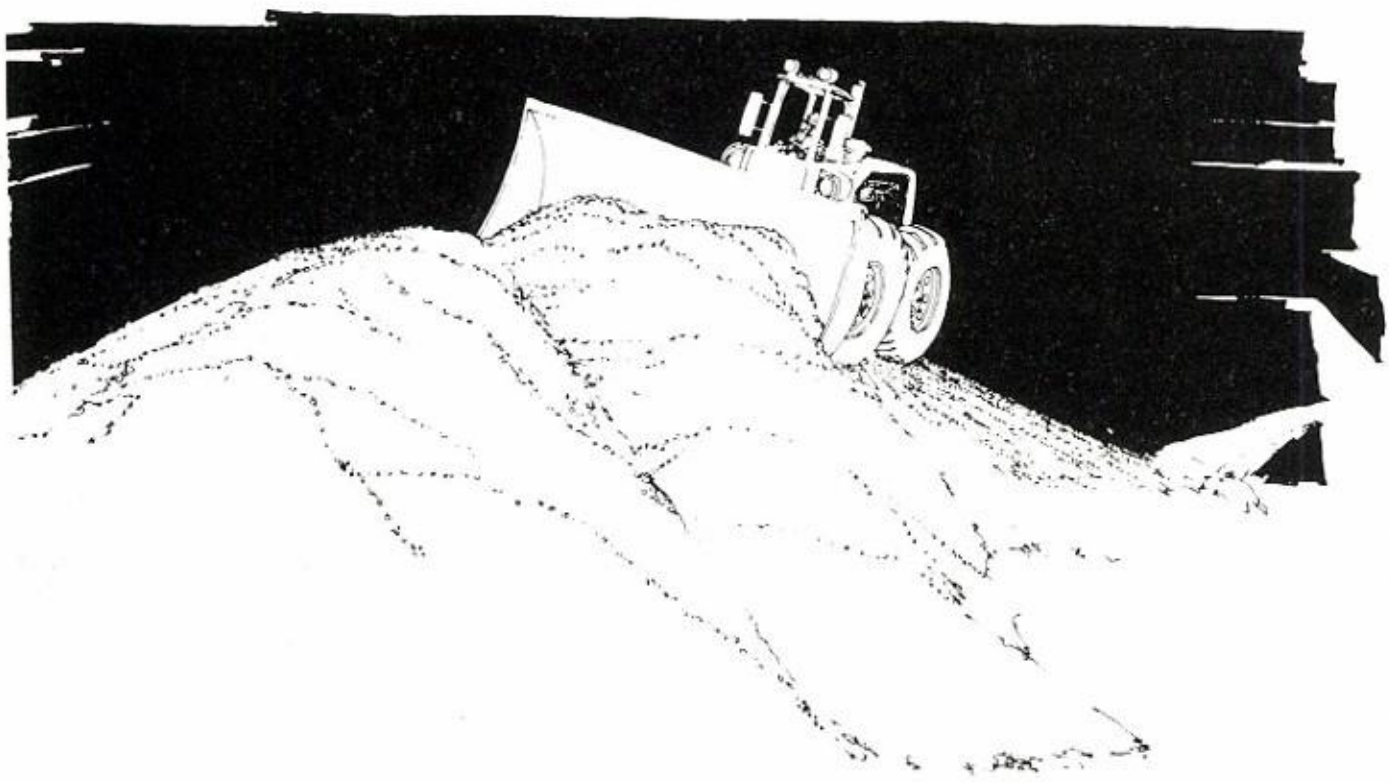
IT WAS A VERY GOOD YEAR

IMAGINATION IN PRODUCT UTILIZATION, THIRTEENTH IN A SERIES

How we profit from 9 million tons of leftovers.



This year, Georgia-Pacific will sell, use or recycle more than 9 million tons of wood chips, shavings, sawdust, trim from paper mills, bark, and other leftovers. Some of the leftovers are used as fuel to power G-P mills. But most of the wood wastes are converted into useful, profitable products: Pulp and paper. Particleboard and hardboard. Ground mulch. Charcoal briquets. Roofing materials. Even food flavorings and medicines.

We've found many profitable uses for leftovers—materials that would have been discarded only a few years ago. And this has also allowed us to substantially reduce burning as a means of disposal, a source of air pollution.

Sawdust, chip fines, and sander dust have always been difficult to dispose of. In the past, these tiny particles were simply burned. And some are still used as fuel. But today we're also using these materials to make panelboard —an entirely new engineered board manufactured by a patented continuous cylindrical press process. These wood residues are blended with G-P resin then bonded together under heat and pressure, producing a rigid, thin board ideal for door skins, core stock, wall paneling, commercial and residential remodeling, and other applications. And only a few years ago, the materials to make panelboard were considered useless. Waste.

At G-P, we're working to utilize as much of our valuable resources as possible. If a leftover seems useless, we find a use for it. Just as we're using 9 million tons of wood residues this year. Because, when leftovers are treated with a little imagination, they really aren't leftovers at all.

This is another way imagination pays for Georgia-Pacific. And for you.

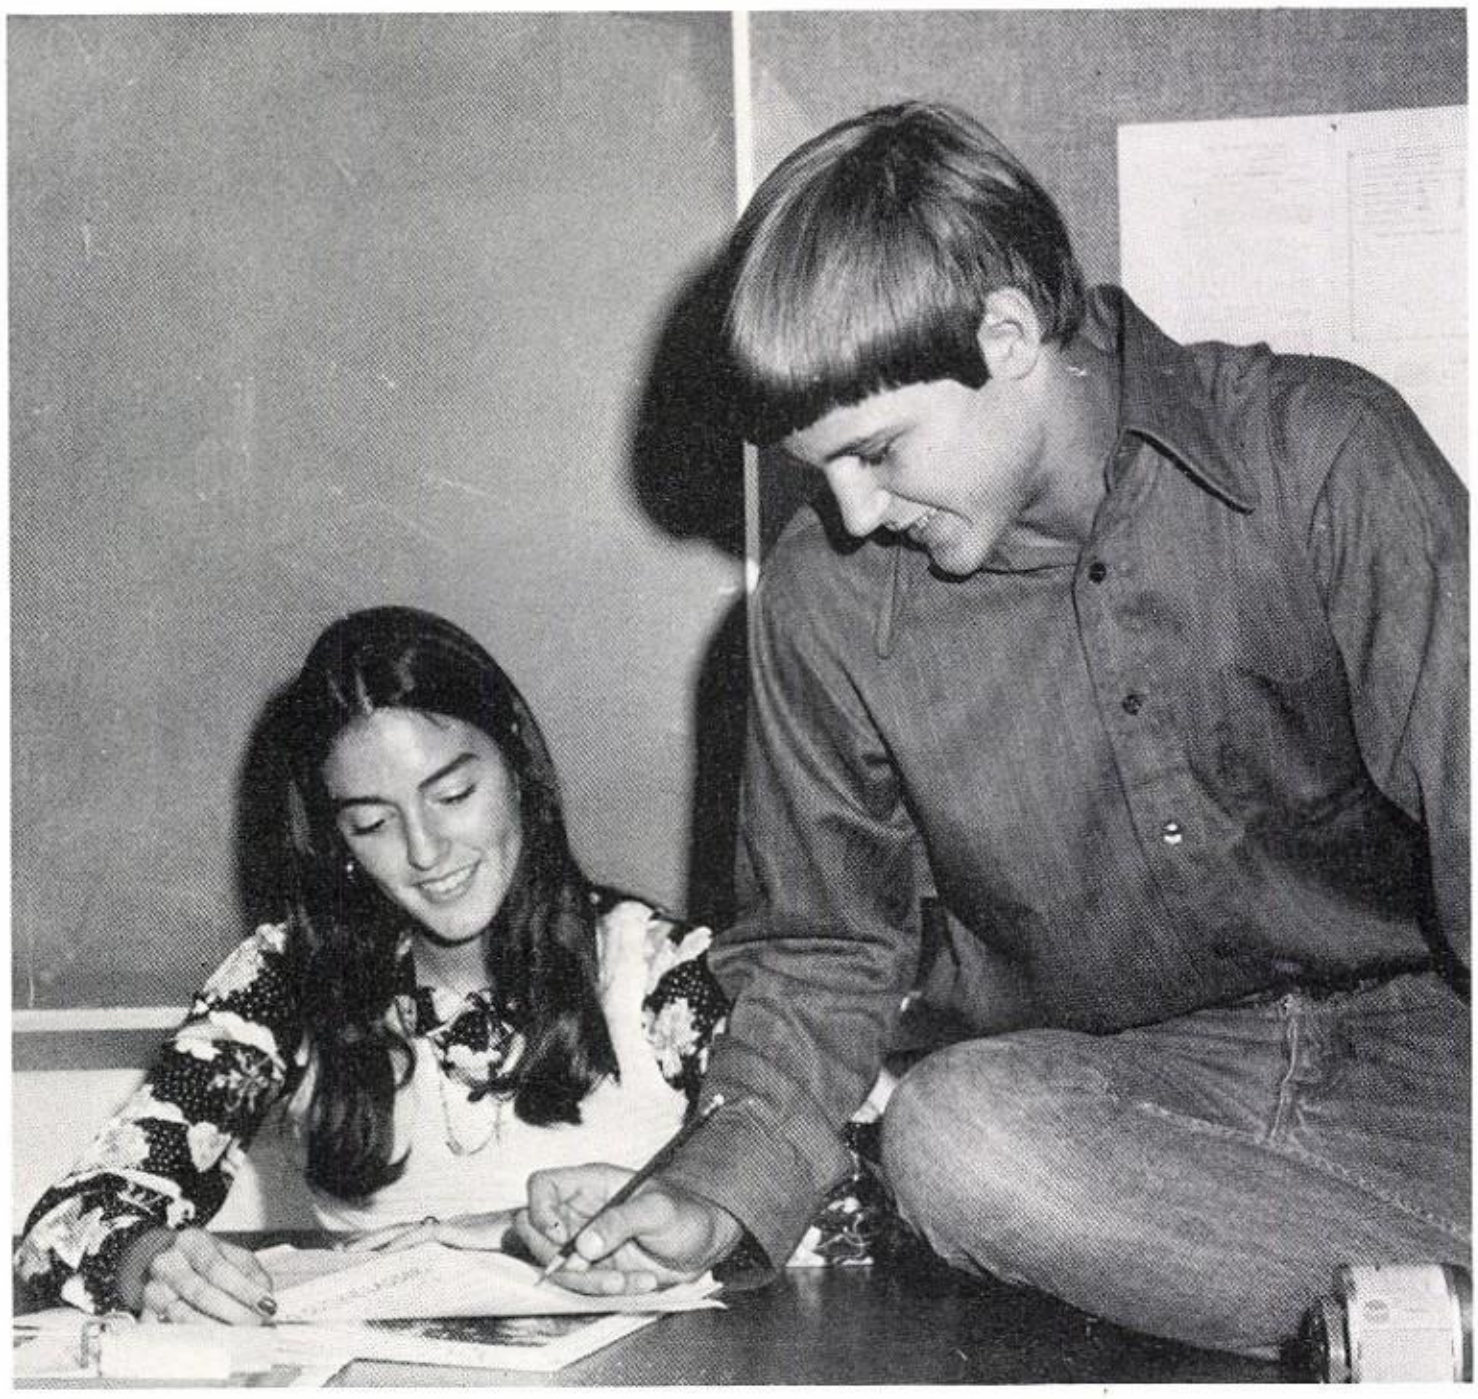
PRODUCTS NOW AND FORESTS FOREVER



Co-editors, Susan Spivey & Ashton McCombs

We would like to thank the Senior Class for giving us the opportunity to serve as co-editors of the Lion '75. With the help of Mrs. White and our dedicated staff, we've tried to do our best.

We have made a few changes this year that we thought the student body would appreciate. Our goal has been to improve, and whether we have or not is your decision.

Having juniors on the Lion staff this year has provided a greater representation of our school. We feel that this experience will benefit them greatly next year.

We deeply appreciate Mrs. White for her patience and her willingness to listen. Thank you students of HHS for making this Lion '75 possible.
